At this time of year the lines of the poet Marie Louise Haskins are often quoted:

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year:
“Give me a light that I may tread safely to the unknown”

And he replied:

“Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God.
That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way.”
So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night.
And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.
