Pope Francis on Courage

"It is time for courage, although does not mean having assurance of success: courage is required to fight not necessarily to win, to proclaim, not necessarily to covert. Today, what is required of us is courage to be alternative in the world, without becoming argumentative or aggressive. What is required of us is the courage to open all, without ever diminishing the absoluteness and uniqueness of Christ, the saviour of all. Courage is required of us to stand up to unbelief, without becoming arrogant
