Cemetery prayers: There will be prayers in Holy Rosary cemetery on Sunday November 11th at 3pm. Dates for other cemeteries to be arranged.

Sunday November 11th is the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War in which hundreds of thousands of soldiers died, many of them Irish, including a number from Midleton and surrounding parishes. The 12 noon Mass on that day will be offered for the repose of all those killed in that war. A brief service of remembrance will take place in Holy Rosary church beginning at 11.45. The Mass will be followed by a parade to the World War I monument at the 'Baby's Walk' where wreaths will be laid. Those attending are invited to leave their own personal mementoes there as well, and memorial crosses will be available.

Rural Stations:

A concelebrated Mass will take place for all rural station areas not otherwise arranged, in Holy Rosary Church on Monday November 5th at 7.30pm. If you would like host a station for an area please contact the relevant priest as soon as possible.

Upcoming Rural Stations

Friday 9th November: Ballintotis, Ballybutler, Ballyedekin Farrentrenchard in St. Colman's Church, Ballintotis.

Holy Rosary cemetery has recently been mapped and indexed and is now available to be consulted online at www.irishgraveyards.ie . This website allows you to enter the name of any person buried in the cemetery and it will give you all the details of where the grave is located as well as showing a picture of the headstone. We will soon have the full map and index on display in the cemetery grounds. A draft map and index will be displayed in the Fr Murphy Parish Hall on Saturday 17th November from 2pm to 6pm along with correction forms. Please come along and check that the information recorded for your family grave(s) is accurate and correct it if necessary.
